

INTRODUCTION

Mr. Deepankar Gharami

Greetings,

I am Deepankar Gharami, Managing Director of Aarush GOC Pvt Ltd.

After completing my Polytechnic, I pursued my graduation in Electronics and Telecommunication from Mumbai University. To gain corporate experience, I worked with ICICI and HDFC's insurance companies (MNCs) before stepping into entrepreneurship in 2012. At the age of 26, I entered the automotive industry with my first product, FUEL SAVER, utilizing HHO technology. As the world rapidly shifted towards digitalization, I expanded into the mobile technology sector, leading to the creation of ATMT (Anti-Theft Mobile Tracker App) for Android users in 2017. Continuing my journey of innovation, I introduced Mamppi Diapers in 2020, a range of reusable bamboo-based diapers. Taking my next step as an industrialist, I established Avyukt Enterprises, a paper industry venture in 2024.

With over a decade of entrepreneurial experience, a network of 500+ distributors, and operations extending to Bhutan, Nepal, and Bangladesh, I have remained committed to business expansion and technological advancements. I was honoured as a finalist in Shark Tank India Season 2 and recognized as a Big Fish Pool Achiever, a platform that celebrates top innovators and entrepreneurs for their ground-breaking contributions and business success.

Currently, I am also leading an NGO named Avyukt Foundation, dedicated to supporting underprivileged children by providing them access to quality education and fulfilling their educational needs.
